IN AND ABOUT LANCASTER.

Big show today, Friday.

Buy your boards and shingles at S. Morgan's.

The best two horse wagon on the market at G. S. Gaines'.

Nice line millinery at cost. Mrs. A. S. Haselden, Bryansville, Ky.

New Railroad and war map of Cuba and the world only 15c. J. C. Thompson.

Rev. T. H. Colman, of Burgin, will exchange pulpits with Rev. W. M. Kuykendall at the Fork Sunday.

Lost, a blue parasol, some where on the square or between Lancaster and W. R. Cook's on Danville pike. Finder return to T. Curry and get reward.

Kice Benge Better.

Kice Benge, whose accident was reported in THE RECORD, is much better, and he can get about some with the aid of crutches.

Mrs. Margaret Anderson Watts, of Louisville, will give a talk Saturday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, at the W. C. T. U. room. Subject, "How Homing Pigeons are trained for War Ships." All are cordially invited.

Sunday Mail.

The post office is now open Sunday mornings from seven to eight o'clock to distribute mail left by the night trains. This is a great convenience. It also gives us the Louisville Times, and Louisville Post, which excellent papers enjoy a good circulation here.

Good News Gatherer.

While Judge M. D. Hughes is working up Maccabee lodges, George Smith is gathering news for the former's numerous papers. George yields a ready quill and can send an item as quick as the next one. We are under obligations to him for valuable help this week.

The Interior Journal of the 10th, contains a very good picture of Miss Ethel Traylor, who has many relatives and a host of friends in this county. It also contains a letter from George S. Bryant, President of Woodland College, Independence, Missouri, in which he speaks very highly of Miss Traylor's accomplishments, and predicts for her a brilliant future in the journalistic line.

Bring in a dollar for the RECORD.

Best binder twine always on hand at Gaines.

The greatest Disc Harrow on the market, at G. S. Gaines'.

Come to the circus today. It will probably be the last of the season.

Headquarters for Deering Binders, Mowers and threshing machines at G. S. Gaines.

Eggs for Hatching.

From prize winning Black Minorcas 15 eggs for $1.00. R. L. Elkin.

J. R. Jennings carries every thing that is made in men's, women's and children's shoes. See his line before buying.

Given Away.

The Howard Tailoring company will give a $3 hat with every suit of clothes sold to July 25.

M. D. Hughes, Agt.

A Buster.

While bathing in Dix river Sunday, Charley Frisbie caught a turtle which measured two feet, ten inches across. The monster is on exhibition at Frank Jennings' store.

Lawn Party.

A Lawn Party for the benefit of the Baptist church, will be given at the residence of Dr. Herring on the evening of Thursday, June 23. Only 25 cents admission fee will be charged and a large crowd should attend.

"Brother's" a Good 'Un.

John Newland, chief of police at Stanford, passed through town Sunday on the trail of a fellow who had stolen some goods. "Brother" is a day hawk and a night owl. O'enders never escape his watchful eye, no matter where they do devils.

After a Gang.

Officers from Madison and Lincoln counties were here Sunday, in search of members of the till-story gang, who are accused of stealing all over the country. They seem to have a mania for harness, saddles and bridles, but will take anything from a monkey-wrench to a threshing machine. The Madison officers succeeded in bagging two of the members, but "Brother" Newland went back empty handed. However, he has one of the gang in jail at Stanford.

Don't forget the Contest at Stanford June 17th.

Take advantage of our Courier-Journal offer. It's great.

Our Courier-Journal offer is bringing in many subscribers. Read it.

Don't forget the contest in election at the Stanford opera house, Friday evening. It will be the event of the season.

They Need It.

If our delinquent subscribers could hear how our creditors kick for money, they would certainly bring in their dollars and relieve us.

Premium.

Wanamaker & Brown are giving each customer from $3 to $5, in the price of suits, as the customer saves that much and gets a perfect fit.

M. D. Hughes, Agent.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Taxes are now due the City and all are respectfully requested to pay same at once. The penalty will soon be added and it will be to your interest to pay your tax now.

E. M. Walker, M. C. L.

Will Dunlap in Cuba.

A letter dated at Tampa, from Will O. Dunlap to his mother, says: "Twenty thousand of us regulars and volunteers are loaded and are being loaded to leave for Santiago de Cuba or Porto Rico, today. We are under scaled orders and will not know which place until out at sea. We are the first troops to leave here. Four of Sampson's men-of-war will escort us. I am well, and getting along nicely. I belong to 'C' troop, 6th United States cavalry.

Left 'Em Out.

In the hurry of writing up the five or six parts of the Fancier-Mason wedding we omitted the names of Horace Herndon and Letcher Owsley, the gentlemen attendants. How such an oversight occurred is hard to explain to anyone knowing nothing of the work to be done in a printing office. On Wednesday we prepare our "local" help set it, read the proof, correct it and "make up" Wednesday night. This, in connection with looking after some ten thousand other things, is calculated to take up a good slice of one man's time. We are, indeed, glad that it was Horace and Letcher whom we overlooked, as they have sense enough to know that errors will occur. If they were two three-headed idiots, like some people we know, they would have quit taking the paper and gone about preaching of our short-comings. On the other hand, they say it is a good one on them and enjoy it as quite a joke.

Excellent.

Arrangements have been completed for receiving mail from the night trains. It is brought up and thrown into the post office door, and Postmaster West opens it at 7 o'clock. This is as early as the majority of business men could wish. The mail which goes out at night is closed at 6 p. m., giving much more time than under the old way. The day trains will continue to bring mail, one at 11:30 a. m., and one at 4:30 p. m. The express is also put off now, and words are inadequate to express the gratefulness of our people to the L. & N., for this accommodation. Our town is now as well equipped with trains, mail and express as any in the state. And this was all brought about by the hustling of a few citizens. If everybody would hustle, instead of lounging around and raising objections, we could soon have a town second to none in the state. One or two parties have fought teeth and toe-nail the putting on of this train service, but their little wails failed to cut any ice. The day for three or four men to run Lancaster is passed, and the majority has taken charge of affairs.

Raiders.

Toll gate raiders got in their work in this county again Friday night. The double gate on the Richmond road was chopped to pieces and the usual note of warning left. The gate keeper started down the road to inform a director of the work and discovered a bridge on fire. He worked or sometime succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Road officials came in Saturday, made the required affidavit and Judge Burnside furnished guards. The gates have been replaced and toll is again being collected. This road and the one leading to Crab Orchard are the only ones in the county now collecting toll. Gate-keeper Ollie Terrill, appeared before Judge Burnside, Saturday, and swore out a warrant for Wm. Wren, a teamster for Koehler Bros., the lumber men. Terrill says he positively identified Wren as the man who fired at him. He says when he went and told him so, Wren said, "Well, if you know me so well, I will put an end to you," and discharged a Winchester rifle at him, however, the ball missed him and embedded itself in a near-by plank. Deputy Sheriff Ward arrested Wren at Cartersville, Sunday, and brought him to jail. Wren told a Record man that he knew nothing of the toll gate raid, and that he was at home in bed that night. He will have an examining trial as soon as he can secure a number of witnesses by whom he claims he can establish an alibi.

Notice.

To save cost, call and settle with J. G. Sweeney.

Next to the devil himself, comes the "Sandy only" christian.

I would like to do your plain sewing and dyeing. Mrs. Ophelia Dunn.

Lost, in or near Lancaster, a plain ring. Finder return to this office and get reward.

Lost.

Pair gold glasses, on Public Square Thursday. Bring to this office and get reward.

As the season is about passed our line of wall paper has not been reduced sufficiently, we are now closing it out at reduced rates. J. A. Beazley & Co.

John Kersey, colored, who shot, and it was thought at the time, fatally wounded Henry Beazley, another negro, was admitted to bail Monday, in the sum of $500, with O. G. Speaks and Ed. Hughes, as sureties. Beazley is getting well.

Remembered the Boys.

A number of ladies prepared and sent to the soldier boys a huge box of good things to eat. They sent several hams, chickens, homemade light-bread, pickles, cakes, etc. Enough for the entire company was put in, and we know the hungry fellows will live high for a while.

Ames-Kelley.

A marriage which somewhat surprised their many friends was that of Dr. J. A. Ames and Miss Ida May Kelley. The ceremony was performed by Ed. Gowen at the residence of the bride's mother in this city, Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock. The bride is a handsome and attractive lady, and has many friends among the young people. Dr. Ames is widely known in Garrard, having made the race for school superintendent last fall. He is a good physician and enjoys a large practice.

Closes Down.

The Pilgrimage Distillery shut down for the season last Friday, after a run of several months. This is one of the most complete and successfully operated distilleries in the State. Manager John W. Miller and C. R. Norris spared no pains to make it a success, and it goes without saying that when they place their shoulders to the wheel, failure is impossible. Messrs. Jake Kirtz and John Adams, who were employed in the bottling department have returned to their home in Cincinnati.

A Hot Time.

There'll be a hot time in the old town of Stanford, Friday night 17th, and the array of beauty and chivalry in the handsomely decorated Opera House will be a picture to linger in memory. The subjects selected are only excelled in beauty by the loveliness of the nine young ladies who participate, neither of whom comes for health alone, but to contest every inch of eloquency ground. It will really and truly be a contest from start to finish, and as tickets are going like hot cakes on election day at McRoberts drug store, a tremendously large audience will greet the grand galaxy of eloquency stars when the curtain rises promptly at 8 o'clock. Beazley, Waters & Menefee, Managers.

The Best War News.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is now publishing the fullest, most accurate and most reliable war news of any paper in the South or West. It is devoting all its energies to making a reputation for its war reports, and is certainly succeeding admirably. The Courier-Journal has subordinated all other issues to that of the war. Politics, money, civil service, the tariff—all are out of it now. The war is the one topic discussed by the people, and they want the news of it fresh and accurate. The Courier-Journal realizes this, and it is supplying the demand as no other paper can do.

The Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal prints the cream of the daily news. It is issued Wednesday and Saturday. The price has recently been cut from $1 to 50 cents a year, making unquestionably the cheapest, as well as the best, paper published anywhere. You get 104 six or eight-page papers for 50 cents.

By a special arrangement, the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal and THE CENTRAL RECORD will be sent one year for only $1.25. Subscriptions under this offer must be cash, and must invariably be sent through the office.

More Men Wanted.

The order to recruit the companies up to 100 men makes it necessary for the Lancaster company to get about twenty-five more soldiers. Those desiring to enlist can see the recruiting officers now in Kentucky, be sworn in and have their transportation paid to Chickamauga. The officers will be in this neighborhood within the next few days. Any young men who have good health, ought to enlist. They are well paid, and, beside, they should have enough patriotism to answer their country's call.

Obituary.

Having stated, in our last issue, that the life and character of Mr. John L. Arnold, deceased, deserves a fuller mention than was then given, we note the following: He was born January 23, 1833, being 65 years old at the time of his death. He had been a sufferer of asthma since 1855, but, being possessed of a strong nerve and great will power, he succeeded well in life and reared a large and highly respected family. He was a man of fixed convictions on every subject, either in private or public life, and always had a cheerful word for everybody with whom he came in contact, no difference what was his condition in life. He was an indulgent father, an affectionate husband, a kind neighbor and a consistent member of the Christian church. Being ever ready to lend a helping hand toward any enterprise, that had in view the elevation and cultivation of his fellow-men, he will be missed in this community and wherever he was known. In fact, his character should be emulated by the rising generation, thereby improving and bettering mankind. He was not only distinguished, for his noble qualities, in times of peace, but following his honest convictions, he enlisted in the Confederate army about the beginning of the late war, and was one of the valiant members of the 31 Ky. cavalry, under General Gano, until the close of the war. Many men who had become attached to him during that struggle, as well as in the ordinary walks of life, attended his funeral and paid the last tribute of respect to a noble, worthy and conscientious man.

Mr. P. Ketcham of Pike City, Cal., says: "During my brother's late sickness from sciatic rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave him any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by R. E. McRoberts.

Deputy Supreme Commander, M. F. Elkin, assisted by M. D. Hughes, instituted a flourishing Tent of the Maccabees at Bryansville on Monday night, composed of some of the best citizens in that section.

Special Term of Circuit Court.

A special term of the Garrard Circuit Court was held here last Thursday by Judge Sandley, to determine who should receive the $10,000 paid over on that day by the Insurance Companies on the death of M. W. Johnson, who died here in December 1896. At the time of his death he held three policies aggregating $3,000 in the Michigan Mutual; $10,000 in the Mutual of New York; $50,000 in the New York Life, and three policies aggregating $20,000 in three Accident Companies.

Shortly after his death the Michigan Mutual paid a small policy of $2,500 in full, it going equally to the widow and children. The Mutual of New York and Travelers Accident Companies now come and offer to compromise their two policies of $10,000 each at 50 cents on the dollar, which, on advice of the attorneys, the Court has instructed the parties to accept, and this special term was held to decide to whom the money should be paid. The accident policy had been assigned to the Edwards-Barnard Tobacco Warehouse Company, of Louisville, as collateral security by Johnson, and the court held the assignment valid and binding, less attorneys fees, commissions and costs, in collecting same.

The Mutual Life policy was payable to "Mary C. Johnson, widow of Matthew W. Johnson and their children," and the court was required to decide whether said widow was entitled to one-half of same, or should receive share and share alike with the five children. The court held that said language gave the widow one-half, from which decision an appeal has been taken by J. M. Higginbotham, as guardian of said children. Said warehouse company also held an assignment of one-half of said policy, but same was construed to take one-half of the widow's share only, and not effect the children's interest.

The cases present very interesting questions and are being bitterly fought by opposing counsel. The Warehouse is represented by Humphrey & Davis, of Louisville, the widow by J. A. Sullivan, of Richmond, while the guardian and administrator is represented by W. McC. Johnston, of the local bar. The other suits are still pending at Louisville.
